According to the IPA, pharmaceutical companies may suffer a sales loss of Rs 3,000 crore if the government's span of control increases, as proposed in the new pricing policy.

He was describing the fungus's inner power, which is more real to the people of the Himalayas than any of the scientific reports attesting to its efficacy.

But, I'm going to see for myself in a few days.